Introduced by Assembly Member Keene

February 21, 2008

---

An act to amend Section 1798.14 of the Civil Code, relating to privacy.

LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL'S DIGEST

AB 2362, as introduced, Keene. State records: personal information.

Existing law, the Information Practices Act of 1977, prohibits specified state agencies from disclosing any personal information in a manner that would link the information disclosed to the individual to whom it pertains. It requires that each agency maintain in its records only personal information which is relevant and necessary to accomplish a purpose of the agency required or authorized by the California Constitution or statute or mandated by the federal government.

This bill would make a technical, nonsubstantive change to these provisions.

Vote: majority. Appropriation: no. Fiscal committee: no.
State-mandated local program: no.
